Applicants' Preliminary Amendment filed August 3, 2001, Paper No. 2, is acknowledged.

Claims 6-9 are canceled. Claims 1-5 remain under consideration.

The undersigned Examiner supports the goal of the Office to advance prosecution as expediently as is reasonably possible. Co-operation is requested with respect to the timely submission of any references deemed pertinent to the present application along with Form PTO-1449.

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321© may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claim 1 is rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claim 1 of U.S. Patent No. 6,306,910. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because of overlapping subject matter. Claim 1 of the patent is directed to formula II which is a GABA analog.

Art Unit: 1614

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 1-5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Ehrenberg et al., Neurology (abstract).

Ehrenberg teaches the administration of gabapentin, a GABA analog of instant Formula I, to treat a mammal suffering from a disorder of sleep. The present claims are directed to treatment of insomnia, the chronic inability to fall asleep or remain asleep for an adequate length of time. One skilled in the art would have been motivated to administer gabapentin to treat insomnia of various etiologies following Ehrenberg's teaching. Such would have been obvious in the absence of evidence to the contrary because the disorder of periodic limb movements is a sleep disorder that results in insomnia. The selection of an optimal dosage is a parameter well within the purview of those skilled in the art through no more than routine experimentation.

No claim is allowed.
